

Eldon Hongo has been training hunting and field trail dogs for 14 years and campaigns Field Trial dogs on a National and Regional level. He has summer and winter camps on the most optimum grounds available to train hunting dogs as well as Field Trial prospects. He has finished 14 Field Champions in that time and has won 4 regional and species championships, and has 4 runner-ups in regional championships against some of the toughest shooting and all-age dogs and handlers in the nation. He is the trainer and handler of the 2002 NFC/FC Slick Dixie's Tarkus and has over 50 wins in just the last 3 years in AKC and Regional Championship events with countless placements.